Venice Wine Festival: a triumph of flavors and traditions

Marghera-Italy, 23.03.2025 [ENA]

On the weekend of March 8 and 9, 2025, the city of Venice hosted the first edition of the "Venice Wine Festival" in the suggestive setting of Forte Marghera, offering an unforgettable experience among fine wines, local traditions, culture, and breathtaking ambiance.

This event, which was a great success with the public, brought together numerous companies producing and importing various types of wines, offering visitors a one-of-a-kind experience. The "Venice Wine Festival," conceived and coordinated by Vanni Berna, a highly renowned Sommelier and creator of successful events such as "Bollicine In Villa" and "La Grande Festa del Vino," showcased his dedication to promoting wine culture. His passion for wine and extensive experience in the sector ensured impeccable organisation, a welcoming and refined atmosphere, and an unforgettable celebration of flavors and traditions.

The festival attracted a large number of wine enthusiasts, curious people, and professionals in the sector, all eager to discover the wine excellences presented. The participating companies offered tastings of high-quality wines, allowing visitors to explore a wide range of flavours and aromas. From full-bodied red wines to fresh and fruity whites, every palate found its satisfaction. The event also featured engaging workshops and masterclasses led by renowned sommeliers, providing insights into wine pairing and production techniques. Guests had the opportunity to interact with producers, sharing their passion and gaining a deeper appreciation for the artistry behind each bottle.

On Sunday 9th March, "GidiferroTeam" with Mario Bonesi, Andrea Bonesi, and the beautiful Beatrice Tomada, was present at the festival to make a short film reportage. Their interviews captured the essence of the event, giving voice to the producers and importers present, offering a look behind the scenes of this extraordinary event, and highlighting the passion, dedication, and stories behind the wines showcased. This reportage brought the magic of the festival to life for those who couldn't attend in person.

The "Venice Wine Festival" represented a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in the world of wine, discovering the stories and traditions that lie behind every bottle. The magical atmosphere of Forte Marghera, with its historic and fascinating spaces, made the event even more special, creating a perfect combination of culture, history, food, wine, and unforgettable moments of conviviality and shared passion.

This first edition of the "Venice Wine Festival" offered visitors the opportunity to meet producers and importers directly, allowing a direct exchange of knowledge and experiences. This interaction enriched the event, turning it into a real journey into the world of wine, where participants were able to learn valuable information about winemaking techniques, the stories behind each label, and the passion and craftsmanship that make each wine unique.

The success bodes well for the "Venice Wine Festival". The organizers are already working to plan the next editions, with the aim of making this event a fixed appointment in the calendar of wine enthusiasts. With the expert guidance of Vanni Berna and the support of a dedicated team, the festival will continue to grow and evolve, bringing more and more people to discover and appreciate the wonders of the wine world.
